

A Friendly World

By Lou Singer and Hy Zaret

I want to live in a friendly world, a friendly world, a friendly world.
I want to live in a friendly world, that's good to folks like me.
If I run short of a bowl of rice and my next door neighbor's in,
I want to know that she won't say no, to the color of my skin,
Or, the Church I worship in,
Or, the place from whence I came,
Or, my great-grandfather's name.
I want to live in a friendly world, a friendly world, a friendly world.
I want to live in a friendly world, wherever I may be.
