

Friendship Fires

By Melinda Carroll

1st Verse

Once again, the old year passes,
And here we stand on thresholds, new.
Time moves on and what is left but
Cherished memories of me and you.

2nd Verse

Some are hard and some are easy,
But lessons in life are guaranteed
To make you strong or make you crazy,
Or sometimes bring you to your knees.

3rd Verse

Hearts of stone and hearts of briars
Are lonely hearts that will never know
The joy of love, of Friendship Fires,
The strength that helps you carry on.

4th Verse

Father time makes sweet reflection
Of friends and loved ones, old and new.
And each one with their special gift,
The place inside they touch in you.

5th Verse

So once again, as time moves on now,
Let's raise a glass to the coming year.
May Peace and Love and joy be with you,
And friendship fires that burn so dear.
